SEU GRADUATE PROGRAMS

“SEU’s online, asynchronous learning platform has afforded me the opportunity to advance my professional development while maintaining my commitment to my professional and personal responsibilities.”

-Abner Rodriguez, '24
Master of Arts
in Justice Administration
and Public Service

“I have made lifelong friends, built strong relationships with professors, and gained confidence in myself and my academics. Transferring to Saint Elizabeth University was one of the best decisions I have ever made!”

-Bianca Shaw, '22
Master of Arts, Education

“Going through an online master’s program was very beneficial for me. During my time at SEU, I became a new dad and continued to work 12-hour night shifts as an officer. I was able to do the work in my own time, and it became manageable.”

-Officer Ryan McKay, '22
Combined Bachelor’s in Criminal Justice and Master’s in Justice Administration
and Public Service

SAINT ELIZABETH UNIVERSITY HAS RECEIVED A GRANT TO SUPPORT HISPANIC STUDENTS PURSUING HEALTH CARE CAREERS

Recently, SEU, as one of 12 higher education Hispanic Serving Institutions (HSI) nationwide, was awarded a two-year $200,000 grant from Bank of America to support Hispanic-Latinx graduate students pursuing careers in healthcare through its Progresando initiative.

This initiative, called the Progresando Grant, is a multiyear commitment to help SEU students achieve upward economic mobility through careers in healthcare. It is also helping to increase representation and address the shortage of culturally sensitive, Spanish-speaking health providers.
